

NISL Executive Development Program in Mississippi

The National Institute for School Leadership (NISL), in collaboration with the Mississippi Association of School Administrators (MASA), is pleased to offer the Executive Development Program (EDP), the leading executive development program for school leaders in the country. The EDP provides the knowledge, skills and tools for school leaders to become instructional leaders and drive school-wide improvements in instruction and student learning.

You are invited to attend the EDP at the Adams and Reese Law Firm in Ridgeland, Mississippi. Please register to confirm your attendance at all 12 sessions by October 15, 2018.
